

WOOFS OF WISDOM

from the book

I want to have the

HEART

of a

DOG

"We will always be with you--your furry angels who you can love and trust unconditionally and feel safe with."

"You do not have to dramatize every experience in your life. Sometimes it is enough to quietly take it in and correct your choices from that experience."

"True love does indeed span time and space."

"Know that we love you. Know you are worthy of our love. In fact, we are a reflection of that worthiness. We are a reflection of what is in your heart."

"We are simply having experiences in a physical world. That is not who we are. Not what we are capable of."

"You don't have to follow what others have done. You don't need any guide but what is in your heart."
